SFHMH18
Identify the physical health needs of individuals with mental health needs

Overview

This standard covers identifying an individual's physical health needs and their capability, or that of their carer, to address these needs within the limitations and risks of the individual's mental health needs.

This standard applies to anyone responsible for identifying the physical health needs of individuals with mental health needs and determining appropriate courses of action to promote their physical health.

Users of this standard will need to ensure that practice reflects up to date information and policies.

P2 encourage and support individuals and significant others to contribute to the identification of the individual's physical health needs
P3 obtain appropriate and necessary background information about the individual's physical health needs
P4 work with individuals and significant others to identify the individual's physical health needs and their particular requirements
P5 ensure your assessment of the individual's physical health needs provides a balanced picture, taking full and appropriate account of:
  P5.1 their mental health needs
  P5.2 their ability to undertake their own health care
  P5.3 the capability of significant others to meet the individual's health care needs
  P5.4 any risk to the individual, their carer, family, community or care practitioners
P6 seek advice and support from an appropriate source when the needs of the individual and the complexity of the case are beyond your role and capability
P7 use information on the individual's physical and mental health needs as a whole to inform subsequent action
P8 explain the agency and legislative requirements for sharing information with others
P9 negotiate agreement with the individual and significant others on the information which will need to be shared, and with whom P10 maintain complete, accurate and legible records of your assessments in a format which allows other practitioners to use them easily
P11 communicate records of assessments only to those authorised to see them in accordance with organisational, professional and legal requirements for confidentiality of personal information.
P12 communicate with individuals and significant others in a manner that emphasises the two way nature and role of the individual as an informed equal partner in the process
P13 explain the outcomes of the assessment to individuals in an appropriate manner, level and pace
P14 agree the subsequent action to be taken with the individual, based on:
  P14.1 the consent and wishes of the individual
  P14.2 the information gained from the assessment of the individual's physical health needs
  P14.3 input received from different professional roles

Knowledge and understanding

You need to know and understand:

K1 relevant individual and mental health specific legislation and how this should inform and guide the assessment of need (such as The Mental Health Act, The Children Act etc.)
K2 the principles of needs-led assessment and person-centred planning
K3 how an individual’s physical and mental health needs may be linked and impact on one another and why it is important to be aware of this (e.g. chest infection in an older person could present as acute anxiety)
K4 how routine ageing processes can influence physical health and the impact this can have on mental health needs
K5 the importance of acknowledging your own values and assumptions when carrying out an assessment, and strategies for dealing with these
K6 why the individual’s views of their own needs should be listened to and due weight given to individual preferences and choices
K7 your legal and organisational status and your powers and responsibilities in relation to decision-making and resource-holding
K8 how the legislative framework affects agency policy, assessment strategies used and information gathered
K9 the data protection act and its implications for the recording and storing of information
K10 the importance of recognising and valuing difference and diversity
K11 why it is important to record situations in which preferred options are not feasible due to agency policy or resource constraints
K12 the policy and procedures to follow in situations where informed consent cannot be obtained
K13 the background information which is necessary for the assessment to proceed effectively
K14 how to integrate and synthesise all of the information about an individual’s physical and mental health needs so that they can be considered as a whole and what to do with pieces of information which seem inconsistent with the rest
K15 how to determine the subsequent actions which may be necessary depending on the outcomes from the assessment of individuals’ physical health needs
K16 how to structure assessment records so that they contain all of the necessary information and are suitable for others to use
K17 who has the right of access to information held on records
K18 the risks which there may be in various courses of action for the individual and how to assess these realistically
K19 how to balance risks, assess individuals’ needs, resource availability and service priorities
Identify the physical health needs of individuals with mental health needs

K20 the purpose of agreeing with individuals if a referral to another practitioner is required and how to provide them with sufficient and relevant information for them to give their informed consent
K21 the purpose of recording agreements reached with individuals and how to do this effectively
K22 methods of communicating assessment information to others balancing the duty of confidentiality, any agreements made with the individual, risks and duty of care
K23 the resources which are available to meet the individual's needs within your own and other services, including specific provision catering for older people.
K24 the priorities of the services for different groups and how these affect the services you are able to provide or refer to K25 how to determine whether the individual's needs should be met even if resourcing of the service makes this difficult and what to do in these situations
K26 the arrangements which may need to be put into place for further assessment or interventions and the capacity of the service to provide these K27 the roles, structures and functions of the different agencies to whom referrals maybe made
K28 how to determine whether a referral is appropriate to services provided by the agency concerned
K29 the rights of practitioners to refuse referrals and the reasons why this might be done (e.g. contract requirements, the assessment may put the individual at risk or not be for their benefit, insufficient resources)
K30 the quality, quantity and type of information which needs to be provided when making referrals and any differences that arise as a consequence of the information systems used by an agency
K31 how the nature of the relationship between the significant other(s) and the individual may alter the extent to which you ask them to be involved, or the individual would wish for them to be involved
K32 how to interpret signs from the individual as to their wishes, although they may not make these explicit
K33 how to encourage individuals and their significant others to assess their own needs and the reasons for doing this K34 methods of explaining clearly to individuals and their significant others the outcomes of the assessment
K35 the different fears and concerns which individuals and their significant others will have about the assessment and its outcomes and how to recognise and respect these whilst at the same time being open and honest with those concerned
K36 how to encourage significant others to support the individual
K37 how to interpret the information provided by individuals and their
