Additional Information

Scope/range

The scope is here to give you guidance on possible areas to be covered in this unit. You need to provide evidence for the areas that are relevant to the care service that you lead and manage, and a sound rationale for not providing evidence for the remaining items.

People include:

1. adults using care services, their families, carers, groups and communities
2. children and young people using care services, their parents/carers, families, carers, groups and communities

Preferred communication methods and language including: people’s preferred spoken language; the use of signs; symbols; pictures; writing; objects of reference; communication passports; other non verbal forms of communication; human and technological aids to communication; pre-verbal utterances in infants and young children

Relevant others could include: other professionals who should contribute to the activity, people from within your provision who should contribute to the activity, people from outside your provision who should contribute to the activity

Workers could include: those supporting the people within your provision who are paid, unpaid, contractual or non-contractual

Your knowledge and understanding for this unit relates to: legal and organisational requirements for care services; employer and employee codes of practice and conduct within care services; the depth and breadth of understanding that will enable you to lead and manage care services effectively, support workers to perform competently, ensure the well being of all within your provision, critically evaluate, assess and intervene appropriately to resolve issues and conflicts; and the need to understand and work in collaboration with people, workers and relevant others within and outside your provision to ensure its viability into the short, medium and longer-term future.

Competent leadership and management practice is a combination of the application of skills and knowledge informed by values and ethics. This specification details the knowledge and understanding required to carry out competent leadership and management in the performance described in this unit.

Values

Values underpinning the whole of the unit

The values underpinning this unit have been derived from the key purpose
